

EWB Breaks Ground on Santa Rosa Recreation Center

On January 17, 2011, Eleven Western Builders broke ground on the Santa Rosa Recreation Center in Indio, CA. The site, now a vacant dirt lot, will soon be home to 15,000 square feet of multi-purpose recreation space, including a weight room and indoor walking track. The ground-up project will boast custom cabinetry and trim by EWB's in-house millwork department.

The PulteGroup, Inc. is a nation-wide developer and owner of the Santa Rosa Recreation Center. Based in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, PulteGroup, Inc. is America's premier home building company with operations in 67 markets, 29 states and the District of Columbia. Celebrating its 60th anniversary in 2010, the Company has an unmatched capacity to meet the needs of all buyer segments through its brand portfolio that includes Pulte Homes, Centex Homes and Del Webb, states their website.

The PulteGroup has worked with EWB in the past on the Rancho Diamante Recreation Center in Hemet, CA and Arroyo Mesa Recreation Center in Apple Valley, CA. Eleven Western Builders is excited to begin our third venture with Pulte and believes "it's another great opportunity to have such a high profile project with high-end finishes," said EWB Project Manager Doug Child. EWB can offer specialized services to our clients including fixtures and expert custom millwork. "The project is one to showcase our abilities and workmanship with finish carpentry," said Child.

The recreation center is expected to be complete in September of 2011.

Eleven Western Builders, Inc. is a general contractor based out of Escondido, CA. For information about EWB, visit our website at www.ewbinc.com.

Sources:

Welcome (2011, ). In PulteGroup, Inc.. Retrieved January 17, 2011, from <http://pultegroupinc.com/>

